Present at the vicarage were J. Sly, B. Hunter, J. Caughron, L. Boyd, and C. Bower, and Fr. Adams. Minutes read and approved. Financial report approved. Attached. Fr. Adams announced that no one was able to attend.

We are required to pay $130.00 to the Missionary District for fire insurance. We are already covered thru Fieldman insurance, so are reluctant to pay this. Lola will write to the Church Finance people to question them on the ~~costs~~ covered by the group insurance and other details of the policy.

C. Bower moved: It was seconded; and passed to have ~~$200.00~~ ^{over this over $1000.00} taken from the reserve fund and added to our checking account to start the year.

Fr. Adams reported on James Rodson Memorial. Approximately 200.00 is in the fund. An agreement with Rodson allows us to buy a new purple and a new green docile for the altar. Mrs. Adams estimates that the docile curtains will amount to about $65.00. New lighting on the altar ^{and rods} will be delayed until work on the carpeting ^{in the sanctuary} and flooring is done. Fr. & Mrs. Adams will keep track of the docile expenses and report to the Bishop's Committee. ^{for storing the linen}

No report on the carpeting except that we are waiting for more carpet to arrive. Dick Krappon gave a lot in the Northwest part of town to the Church.

Annual meeting. The Guild will organize the food. Lola presented a proposed budget. She, Fr. Adams and Francis will draw up a prop. budget and make copies for the annual meeting.
