WOMEN OF THE CHURCH

SAINT JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH * 113 MADISON AVENUE * MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA 36104

MRS. ALLEN N. SMITH, President

Dear President:

The members of our Women of the Church are collecting recipes from Episcopal women all over the country for our new cookbook, FAVORITE RECIPES OF EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN. We are planning to publish a large cookbook featuring meat, seafood and poultry recipes.

As President of the Women of the Church, you are invited to submit your favorite recipe for this new cookbook. An extra recipe blank is enclosed for you to give to your Rector's wife or another member of your organization.

Our cookbook committee is working closely with the printer in selecting beautiful, full-color covers for our cookbook. We plan to use sketches and drawings of some of the first Episcopal churches in America as well as some of the contemporary structures of today. We feel this cookbook will be a unique collection that every Episcopal woman will be proud to have a part in.

On the enclosed recipe blank you will find the many delightful categories to be included in our cookbook. Simply fill in the blank with necessary instructions to prepare your favorite meat, seafood or poultry recipe. Space has been provided on the recipe blank for you to add any history or unusual story about your recipe. For example, Mrs. Allen N. Smith, our President, included the following historical background with her "Veal Curry" recipe:

"This recipe was given to my father while he was in India several years ago. It is a typical curry for which the people of India are famous. I have passed this recipe to many of my friends who have enjoyed it as much as my family and I have."

We need your recipe within the next three weeks to meet our printer's deadline. A complimentary copy of the book will be sent to each person submitting a recipe. We plan to use this book for fund raising, and it will be offered to other Episcopal women's organizations which are interested.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Charles A. Harris, Jr.,

Mrs. Charles A. Harris, Jr., Chairman
Cookbook Committee

P.S. Please use the enclosed self-addressed envelope to rush your entry back to me. If you don't have a favorite recipe, please give the recipe blank to another member of your organization.
