

Bishops Committee Meeting June 4, 1972

A short meeting was held after Church on June 4, 1972.

Those present were Rev. Adams, Lola Boyd, Rex Page, Bill Newcomb, Hognor Engelnorn, Merrill Hunter & Gloria Burke

While Rev. Adams is on Vacation, we are to get in touch with Fr. Hoaven in Brookings. The numbers to call are 692-2667 or 692-2717. One of the ministers from Brookings will be here for Communion once a month.

There was a discussion on the time for services during the summer. It was decided to be at 9:00 except when we have Communion services which will be at 11:00. Merrill Hunter will see to the announcement in the paper.

Lay readers are to see about their own Alcolitas for their services.

There was discussion on who to get for an Organist when Loris Hunter leaves for school but nothing was decided.

Rex Page is to see about new lights for the Church. Also check on Wiring.

Someone is to see about the lawn mowing. Gloria to see that the Church is open on Sunday.

It was decided to pay the minister from Brookings $20.00 a Sunday.

The offer was made to pay the lay readers but they declined.

Meeting adjourned.

Gloria Burke, Sec.
